Dear Ms. Jamieson,

I will like to thank you for the information you sent to me about women in agriculture and the program you are promoting "Food Diva". In the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development women are a priority in all the programs going on: "Restitution of Lands", "Rural Women", "Productive Alliances" and others. I agree that discrimination against women in agriculture is a problem and we have a compromise to fight against this in order to have a world with food security.

Thank you for the information and we will contact you for further information.

Best regards,

JUAN CAMILO RESTREPO SALAZAR
